

Mandatory Quarantine Notice for Guests of Montana Hotels & Lodging Properties

Governor Bullock has directed that travelers arriving from another state or country to Montana for non-work-related purposes undergo a 14-day self-quarantine. The Directive follows the governor's prior international travel advisory and his Stay at Home Directive which is in effect until April 10.

The full directive is linked here.

- Any person coming to Montana from another state or country for a non-work-related purpose must immediately self-quarantine for 14 days. If a person will be present in Montana for fewer than 14 days, that person must self-quarantine for the duration of the visit.
- Any person who has already arrived in Montana from another state or country for a non-work-related purpose before the date of this Directive must immediately self-quarantine for the remainder of a 14-day period beginning on the date of their arrival in Montana, or until their departure from Montana— whichever is sooner.
- These quarantine restrictions do not apply in the following circumstances: to persons traveling through Montana en route to another destination; or to public health, public safety or healthcare workers
- These quarantine restrictions shall apply to Montana residents and non-residents alike.
